Dear Harold,

The address of the Texas Monthly is P.O. Box 1569, Austin, Texas 78767. I'm sorry but I have already discarded the copy of the magazine from which I sent you the R.R. article. The only thing that I inadvertently omitted was page 256. I am enclosing that page from my own copy — please return it.

I do not wish to call Norton or involve myself in any way, however remote, with the Dorian creature. I do not even intend to read her book. I will ask Roger but I have the impression that he is extremely busy and may not have the time or the inclination.

Good luck on Pacifica. As this is already the evening of the 21st and Roger's phone does not answer, obviously no information can be ready for you tonight.

Sylvia
